W. A. Taylor as a candidate for Alderman of the third ward.

See the Cross Mark!

If a cross mark appears on this paper opposite your name, you may know that your subscription has expired, or will with the next issue. If you do not receive the paper after that, it will be because you have not renewed. Look out for it this week!
We must have money to run the business, and cannot let the paper go out without it or its equivalent.

Hot! For the World's Exposition at New Orleans.

Opening December 16, 1884, and continuing six months. Commencing December 1, 1884, and continuing until May 31, 1885, the Illinois Central Railroad will sell tickets from Milan to New Orleans and return, good for ten days, at $13.95.

E. M. BROWN, Ticket Agent.
A. H. HANSON, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Ill.

Printing Office For Sale.

The outfit of type, cases, stands, stones, cabinets, press, etc., of the late Humboldt Argus and Fruit and Farm Reporter can be bought at very low figures by addressing W. C. Turner, Milan, Tenn. A good man is wanted to run a paper in Humboldt, and now is his chance.

New Millinery and Dress Goods.

Mr. & Mrs. O. H. Hallstrom have just received a large and elegant stock of the latest styles and most fashionable Dress Goods, Notions, Millinery Goods, etc., from New York and St. Louis. Call and see for yourselves. Prices to suit the times. They defy competition.

Grizzly Bear Loose.

Excitement high. Every one excited out of their wits about the Bankrupt Overcoat. T. Harrison is receiving. Excitement will continue while Tom lives. He shoots in all directions.
Big Bargains in all lines. Doors open from 6 in the morning to 9 at night.

SMALL CHANGE.

"Have a smoke?"

Two bed-rooms for rent over the Exchange office.

Now is the time to put in your holiday advertising.

November closed with a slight fall of snow last Saturday night.

Travel to New Orleans is beginning to assume huge proportions.

A bagpiper raised his discordant notes on our streets yesterday.

Yesterday was dark and drizzly, closing with a prospect for colder weather.

Candidates for mayor and aldermen are almost as numerous as are those who wish to be postmaster.

Voters will remember that the city election occurs next Saturday. Let every one be here and vote.

Rufe Christian has something new in the cigar line and is throwing samples out liberally to his friends. Try one.

A pretty girl kissed our Exchange friend the other day and he has had a sore mouth ever since. He won't acknowledge that she bit him.

The different lodges will elect new officers during this month. If the secretaries will furnish us with their names we will give them publication.

Two slight shocks of earthquake were felt here at 11:10 o'clock last Saturday night, rattling glass, shaking houses, etc. No damage was done.

It is reported that game of all kinds, except ducks, is very scarce at Reelfoot, and that there is a hunter there for each animal. Hundreds of fishermen are also there.

A gentleman tried to get on a fast-moving train here last Thursday, when he was thrown violently to the platform and bruised considerably.
He had a narrow escape.

At one time yesterday there was not a single car of any kind on the Louisville yard here, something we have not noticed before in several years. Business must be lively.

One of our subscribers says he would not miss reading the new story in the Exchange for five dollars. It is by one of our best authors, and many new subscribers ought to read it.

We are informed that the handsome young editor of the McKenzie News contemplates going into the mill business at a neighboring town before long, near the bright and beautiful Minnie-haha.

Messrs. R. O. Crump, W. C. Turner, G. W. Sims and Rev. J. P.
Weaver have bought a fine registered Jersey bull in Williamson county, said to be of the best milk and butter breed. He is looked for daily now.

About twenty-five emigrants from the 17th district of this county took the L. & N. train here last Thursday, bound for Texas. We look for a number of them back next fall, if they have money enough to pay their fare.

Over two thousand bales of cotton have been brought to this market this season. About half that amount has been carried to other points which ought to have been sold here. Are not buyers "killing the goose which lays the golden egg?" Not one bale that belongs here should be allowed to seek another market.

The Iowa commissioners to the Exposition at New Orleans passed here last Wednesday in a special car.
A novel feature was a printing office on wheels, from which was issued the Daily Iowan, a neat, spiky, live paper, which was edited and printed in a car arranged for the purpose. It will be published during the Exposition.

Alderman R. E. Edwards is a candidate for re-election in the third ward, as will be seen by his announcement. He has made an excellent "city father," and will certainly do as well in the future if he should be re-elected.

In our announcement column this week will be found the name of Mr.
Willie Taylor, who is a candidate for Alderman in the third ward. He is a young man of sterling worth, great energy and good sense, and if elected we believe he will make a first-rate alderman.

The state board of health has sent circular letters to the mayors of the different cities and towns in Tennessee urging the necessity of prompt sanitary measures as a precaution against the probable advent of cholera next year. Mayor Hale has received one of these letters and will, we suppose, take the proper steps to comply with its requirements.

Dr. A. A. Davidson this week brought us, for shipment to the New Orleans Exposition, a Mammoth Squash, which weighed twenty-one pounds and measured three feet four and one-half inches in circumference one way and three feet two inches the other. It looked something like a large pumpkin, the rind was tender, and the Doctor says will keep and be good to eat all winter.

A Grand Excursion to California, via New Orleans and the "World's Exposition," will leave Chicago over the Illinois Central R. R. at 8:30 p.m.
Wednesday, December 11th. This is an overland tour of unparalleled interest and attraction. For full particulars apply to A. H. Hanson, General Passenger Agent, I. C. R. R., Chicago, or Geo. W. Kerr, General Tourist Agent, 303 Hennepin Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

As will be seen by reference to our announcement column, Mr. G. W.
Martin is a candidate for Mayor. He is known by our citizens generally, and the simple fact of his announcement will insure him many votes.
He has had long experience as a lawyer, and hence ought to know and be able to fill the chair of Mayor acceptably. He is also a sober, energetic, good citizen, and we believe will work for the interests of the town if elected.

Attention is called to the double-column advertisement of Jesse French's Music Emporium at Nashville. He has an immense stock of pianos, organs and other musical instruments and is prepared to fill all orders promptly and as cheaply as any house in the southwest. Besides, he is thoroughly honest and responsible and purchasers may safely depend on any statement he may make. We will take pleasure in forwarding orders to him for any of our friends.

Adjutant General Cantrell, of Gov.
Bate's staff, is a competent officer and most pleasant gentleman. We are indebted to him for courtesies last Monday while at the capitol. Under his administration the state has secured one of the latest improved Gatling guns, the handsomest piece of artillery we ever saw, and we imagine it would be one of the deadliest ever used. He has also secured full equipments and ammunition for the other guns belonging to the state, and now has the arsenal in better shape than it has ever been.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. Ollie Chapman, while going home from a neighbor's house last Friday night, fell in a ditch, breaking her arm and otherwise hurting herself. She was doing well when we last heard from her.

PERSONAL.

Marshall Bryant was in Memphis several days since our last issue.

Mr. Lusk asks us to say that he has withdrawn from the race for alderman.

Mr. L. J. Brooks, of the Jackson Whig, spent a few hours here last Wednesday.

Senator L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, passed here Thursday, on route to Washington.

Mr. R. Y. Moore and son, Allison, of McKenzie, spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Milan.

Mr. Luther Newhouse, of Humboldt, has accepted a position as agent for the Southern Express company at Monroe, La.

Col. John Weatherford went off on a suspicious trip this week. If anything happens to him we'll let his friends know it.

Rev. B. A. Hayes and wife, of Jackson, spent a day and night here this week, en route to the annual conference at Memphis.

Bro. King is attending conference at Memphis this week, and there will probably be no service at the Methodist church to-morrow.

Our neighbors, the Misses Davis, broke up house-keeping last Wednesday and moved to Brownsville. We will miss them very much.

The Rev. Mr. Hopper, late of Yell county, Ark., preached at the Baptist church last Sunday night. His love for Tennessee would not let him live longer across the Big River, hence he has returned to this state.

Mrs. J. A. Currey, sister of Mr.
W. T. Frenz, of this city, died in Jonesboro, Ark., last Wednesday, aged twenty-three years. Mr. Frenz left for Hickman, Ky., Thursday morning, where her remains were carried for interment.

Don't Permit it.

It is rumored that the stove factory will have to be moved from here on account of the trouble the proprietors have in getting sufficient timber to run steadily. It does seem to us that there is the greatest plenty of timber within a few miles of Milan—enough to run half a dozen stove factories—and it will be a shame if it cannot be bought at the good prices offered.
We sincerely trust that our timber owners will not allow it to be moved.

Face and Neck Burned.

Last Saturday afternoon, Henry Blankinship was drawing whiskey from a barrel, when the funnel became choked with charcoal. He turned around and threw the contents of the funnel into the stove, when the whisky took fire and flashed in his face, burning his neck, face and nose very badly. He is out and doing well, but will walk a hundred yards to throw whisky out before he will again throw it in the fire.

Rather Fishy.

Irv. Mitchum says he and Esq.
Sims, while at the lake a few days since, caught a cat fish which weighed one hundred and seventy-five pounds, was nearly eight feet long, and had a whole sheep in him. He thinks he can prove this marvelous story by Bro. Weaver.

Trip to Reelfoot Lake.

Mr. W. T. Frenz went to the Lake last week and had good success, killing 250 ducks and 2 Geese in five days. The first day he killed 104 ducks and one goose. Is there a sport in the state who can make as good a showing?

Gaskell's Hand-Book of Useful Infor- mation.

We have just received from the publishers a book with the above named title. It contains Statistical Tables of Practical Value for Mechanics, Farmers, Lumbermen, Bankers, Book-keepers, Politicians, and all classes of workers in every department of human effort, and a compilation of facts for ready reference on various subjects. It is elegantly bound in Alligator Leatherette, with gold stamp, and will be sent to any address by mail, post paid, on receipt of 25 cents, by GEO. W. OGILVIE, Publisher, 230 Lake St., Chicago, Ill.

What Bob Burdette Says.

Burdette: "Suppose a newspaper man, every time he hears of a man who has severely criticised him or his paper in public should retaliate by holding up to public gaze the faults and short-comings of said criticiser, what would be the result? Why the criticiser would think he had been terribly outraged, and would thirst for the editor's gore. Then the poor quill driver would get shot or shoot somebody. That patient beast of burden, the country journalist, never does except under great provocation. It isn't because he is afraid to do it, but because he isn't mean enough. He allows men to go around trying to destroy his business. He hears his paper called a worthless sheet, because the editor in doing his duty has stepped on somebody's toe."

Counterfeiters, Take Notice.

All Ladies and Gentlemen desiring to join in the general festivities now going on at Tom Harrison's (none other of same name genuine in the United States) are hereby notified that enormous preparations and constant arrivals of beauties and novelties will continue to come in until the holidays arrive. You are all invited to share in our hospitality and share the many advantages we offer in nice cheap goods. Big preparations are made for you all.

The Nashville Banner

The management purpose taking systematic measures to improve the Weekly Banner in every respect and to make what is already one of the best weeklies in the state, one of the very best papers in the whole country.
Special attention will be given to crop and market reports in order to furnish its readers with the fullest and most accurate information concerning matters of interest to farmers.
A weekly review of the markets will be given, including every item of commercial interest and particularly all information referring to live stock, grain, hay and general farm products.
In addition to the market review, will be published many timely items of interest to farmers, which, taken together, will enable country readers to keep at all times thoroughly informed upon matters of such moment to them. The paper will continue an independent, non-partisan journal—giving full and fair reports of all political matters, and current news of the day. All who favor an untrammeled outspoken newspaper, are invited to send for sample copies, to become subscribers, and aid in giving such a journal a still more extended circulation. Terms: One year, $1; six months 50 cents; three months, 35 cents. Liberal commission to agents. Address Nashville Banner Publishing Company.

Holiday Festivities.

Now, Gentlemen, Boys and Youths, the Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Railroad have in transit for me, from an exploded Cincinnati concern, a large cargo of Overcoats, to be sold out instantly. They will arrive here about Wednesday. This will be your greatest chance of the season to get you a good cheap Overcoat. Tom Harrison's is the place. Make no mistake.
